Lent & Holy Week at Shepherd

All Church Workday ■ Rancho Santa Margarita Campus

All hands on deck! Saturday, May 19 • 8:00 am - noon

Stewardship comes in many forms. The Resource Team sponsored All Church Workday is an important way to give to the church. Time is a valuable commodity. We greatly appreciate your consideration of giving four hours of your time on Saturday, May 19th.

Like your home, our church home needs constant maintenance and up-keep. All levels of experience welcome. If you would like to help, please sign up in the narthex/lobby, call the Admin office at 949 837-2941 or just show up!

Communion on Sunday, May 6

On Sunday, May 6, communion will be celebrated at both worship services at both campuses. Our communion offering will go towards AIDS. The UMC Global AIDS Fund (UMGAF) began in 2004 as a response to the global AIDS pandemic. An inter-agency committee guides the effort. Grants are provided to global projects that provide education for prevention and/or care for those who are infected with HIV or AIDS. As of 2016, funding for 287 Christ-centered projects in 44 countries had been allocated, plus scores of Annual Conference AIDS projects. At the beginning of 2016, approximately 37 million people around the world were living with HIV or AIDS. Young people, particularly women, are increasingly affected - nearly half of all AIDS patients are women. And each day, 700 babies are born HIV positive. Mother-to-child transmission of HIV (MTCT) can be reduced to below 5% when women have access to testing, counseling and treatment. But access is often difficult.

May Is Art Faire Month at Preschool

I am always with you. Psalm 73:23

Shepherd of the Hills UMC Prayer & Centering Prayer Ministry are thrilled Father Bill is flying in from Boston to lead a retreat for us at the Mission Viejo campus. We have experienced him first hand and agree there's a light in him, an authentic sweetness and gentleness that all are drawn to.

A Catholic Priest on a Methodist Campus? WHY NOT?!

Well known Catholic Boston journalist and radio host, Margery Eagan, writes: If Father Bill Sheehan were your parish priest, the pews would be packed for every Mass he said. As it is, he's in huge demand all over the country to lead retreats where everyone sits for hours a day, eyes closed, in a silent meditation known as Centering Prayer. And his retreats are packed. He's the best of the best.

Bill Sheehan himself is more modest. "I just think people are searching for something deeper, and sometimes they don't even know how to articulate that," he said at home in Lowell, Massachusetts, where he is a priest with the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. "I'll be flying to a retreat wearing my Oblate cross, reading or preparing. Inevitably the person next to me will ask, 'Where are you going? What are you doing?' 'I'm going to a retreat center in Amarillo (Texas),' I'll say. 'Oh?' I'll tell them I'm a Catholic priest and I'm giving a retreat there and then, boom, Catholic, not Catholic, Christian or not, they want to know all about it.' There's a fascination there, a curiosity, maybe even a holy yearning. And they're looking for a deeper relationship with God. There's just that attraction."

By Margery Eagan, in Crux Now www.cruxnow.com/faith/2015/04/15/looking-for-silence-with-father-bill-sheehan

Since 1983, he has been involved with Contemplative Outreach, founded by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO, practicing Centering Prayer and guiding others in this way of prayer for more than 25 years.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

"May, more than any month of the year, wants us to feel alive". This quote by Fennell Hudson may mean more to folks who have suffered through a long winter and now see the changes that spring brings with green grass, fields of brightly colored flowers, trees bursting with new leaves, raindrops instead of snowflakes, and warm weather instead of freezing cold days. But May can also bring a renewal of spirit. We just experienced Easter, celebrating together the risen Christ.

We remember His sacrifice for our sins and somehow it seems like we are starting anew. The slate is clean as we begin to write a new chapter.

We have been busy in Prayer Shawl Ministry making shawls for the AIDS walk on May 5 and knitting and crocheting prayer shawls and prayer squares to provide comfort for those who are in need of knowing someone cares.

We wish you a joyous spring, and if you like to knit or crochet, come and join us on the third Monday of each month as we enjoy fellowship and create shawls that bring joy to others. For information, call Marilyn at 714-821-9634 or email widenmad@gmail.com.

Did You Know You Can Get Statements Online

An easy way to keep track of your giving is to log onto MyShepherd, and go to your name. Across the top you will find the word Financial. Click on the word Financial and you can view your giving. Down in the right corner you will see "Giving" and "Pledge".

Click on either of these and you will be able to view your giving and can print a statement after filling in the requested dates, etc.

On the first day of every week, each one of you should put aside money as you have been blessed. —Mark 14:

You can share your faith beyond your lifetime by careful estate planning which includes your church in your will. During your lifetime you will have the joy of knowing that whatever you do not use in this life will continue in ministry through your church after your death.

Resource Committee

Commitment Sunday, May 20

If you did not receive your statement or have any questions regarding your statements, please contact the Mission Viejo campus office at 837-2941. We encourage you to use your offering envelopes to assure correct accounting of funds. Remember, our fiscal year ends June 30.
